SANITORIUM DESTROYED BY FIRE

Big Institution To Have Been Opened at Crab Orchard This Week, Burns to Ground

Epsom Hill Sanitorium, known for several years as the Spitzer Sanitorium, where treatment was given on Battle Creek methods, burned to the ground last Saturday morning about three o'clock. The building, which was about a mile and a half north of Crab Orchard, off the Lancaster pike was very large and commodious, as is shown by the cut above. It was practically new, having been built a few years ago at a cost said to have been close to $12,000. It was the property of W. E. Laur, of Saginaw, Michigan, who purchased the sanitorium a year or so ago and had planned to open it this week on a large and pretentious scale for treatment of nervous and other related troubles. Dr. W. J. Edmiston, of Crab Orchard, was consulting physician and a Mr. W. of Michigan, was to be active manager. The place had been extensively advertised and a good patronage was expected as it offered a splendid retreat for those needing treatment and the fame of Crab Orchard was world-wide.

Just how the blaze originated is a mystery. A colored caretaker is said to have been on the property at the time. Practically everything was destroyed as there was no means of obtaining fire protection.

Two Stanford insurance agencies had policies on the building. The firm of Bromley & Bromley carried $3,500 on the building and had $500 on the furniture and Jess D. Warren had $1,500 on the building.

Keep your property of all kinds always protected by insurance in the old reliable companies represented by Jesse D. Warren, the Insurance Man of Stanford. 10-1

Awarded Medal of Honor.

Lieutenant Caswell Snaulay was the recipient of a medal of honor at a banquet in New York City, given him last week by the Navy Department. The token was in appreciation of gallant and efficient service in the navy in general, and his work at Vera Cruz in particular. It was presented by Admiral Peary in a speech replete with good things. Lieutenant Snaulay's words of acceptance were most appropriate and well chosen and rounds of applause met his every sentence. It will be remembered that he made the first flight over Vera Cruz. His friends here are delighted at the honors Mr. Snaulay is receiving and the success he is making of his life work.

Gooch—Dunn.

On Wednesday afternoon, the 27th day of January, Miss Mary Elizabeth Gooch and Benjamin Armstrong Dunn were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in the Goshen section of this county. In the presence of only the two immediate families, the Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster, performed the ceremony in a very appropriate manner. The bride, who is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gooch, wore a suit of blue with hat and gloves to match. She is a very charming young lady and has for the past few years been an enthusiastic teacher in the schools of this county. The groom, who is a son of the late W. G. Dunn, is one of Garrard county's most energetic young farmers and a splendid young man. Both the bride and groom have a host of relatives and friends who wish them much joy and happiness throughout their wedded life.

"The Best Laxative I Know Of"

"I have sold Chamberlain's Tabs for several years. People who have used them will take nothing else. I can recommend them to my customers as the best laxative and cure for constipation that I know of," writes Frank Strouse, Fruitland, Iowa. For sale by all dealers.

Colds and Croup in Children

You will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has recognized advantages over most medicines in use for coughs and colds. It does not suppress a cough but loosens and relieves it. It aids expectoration and opens the secretions which enables the system to throw off a cold. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all dealers.

REVIVAL SERVICES BEGIN AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Trostle Is Being Heard By Large Congregations and Preaching Right from the Shoulder

A Real Revivalist is preaching to large crowds each afternoon and night at the Presbyterian church during the revival services which began there Sunday. Although he has lived in Stanford for something over a year, few local people outside of his own denomination had ever heard the Rev. J. A. Trostle, evangelist for the Transylvania Presbyterian preach in a local pulpit. Those who are hearing him in the meeting now in progress, are beginning to realize what they have missed. Rev. Trostle is peculiarly original in his style of delivery and argument for the Master's Cause, and drives home his points in a way which is bound to have a direct appeal to all who hear him. Some one suggested that he has much of the style of Billy Sunday, but be that as it may, there is no gainsaying the fact that he is a powerful pleader with a vim and fire that holds the attention of his congregations from start to finish. He often presents the old, old story in a new light, but in doing so, it will be found to have some peculiar application that might be difficult of discernment otherwise.

The Sunday services at the Presbyterian Church which were the opening services of the revival were well attended. The Baptist, Christian and the Methodist churches which had heartily co-operated in the preparatory work joined forces at the Presbyterian church in the evening. The result was the assembling of a splendid audience that almost filled all the seats. Not less than 250 people it is estimated were present. The congregations which gathered on Monday were also notably large. A religious service on a week day does not usually number much over 50 people. This one numbered about 100. At the night service there was a large attendance.

The sermons delivered by Rev. J. A. Trostle were very earnest and powerful appeals calculated to awaken the conscience of the indifferent and rouse the sleepy Christian to action.

On Sunday at 11 o'clock Mr. Trostle's theme was Christian Consecration, based on the words of Jesus to Peter, "Lestest Thou Me?" At night the subject was, "The One Thing Needful," the well known words of Jesus to Martha in the tell of household care. Whether or not the preacher intended it, the two discourses were complementary; the one to the other in a striking way. In the first, the great thought, that only the supreme devotion of the soul of man will satisfy Jesus. In the second, the no less important truth that only a Christ, who loves and helps and saves can satisfy man.

The Monday sermons which were also much appreciated were on the subject of Prayer. At the afternoon service at three o'clock the preacher dwelt on the need of prayer and the necessity for a keen sense of the need of God for ourselves and others which alone can make prayer acceptable to God and powerful in accomplishing results.

At the night service the hindrances of prayer were discussed and the way of meeting them clearly pointed out. Mr. Trostle made particular mention of the unforgiving attitude as being one of the most common as well as one of the most fatal hindrances to the prayer life.

The services will be continued through the week, the afternoon meeting beginning at three, night meeting at seven o'clock. Everybody is welcome.

Enlarging Local Ice Plant.

Extensive preparations for improvements in the local ice plant are being made by the Stanford Water, Light and Ice Company, in order to increase the capacity of the plant for the coming summer. One hundred and ninety-six new flues were received Saturday to go in the plant, and other improvements are being made which will enable the local concern to operate at full capacity all summer if there is sufficient demand to need it.

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks

"Coming events cast their shadows before." This is especially true of bilious attacks. Your appetite will fail, you will feel dull and languid. If you are subject to bilious attacks take three of Chamberlain's Tablets as soon as these symptoms appear and the attack may be warded off. For sale by all dealers.

Gov. McCreary has appointed Dr. A. Gatliff, of Williamsburg, a member of the Game and Fish Commission to succeed A. G. Patterson, of Pineville, resigned.

MISS FLORENCE CARTER DEAD

Bright Young Woman Breaths Last After a Long Illness

Death is at all times sad, but it is peculiarly so when it comes to one whose whole life is before her and whose surroundings are happy and who had so much to live for, as did Miss Florence Carter, who passed quietly from life unto death at nine o'clock Monday night. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carter, of Stanford, and was the idol of their home. Several years ago she showed signs of failing health and in the hope of warding off the serious trouble, her parents took her west, where she was thought to be so much improved that they brought her home, hoping that she would soon be well and strong again. Last summer her trouble again showed itself and she gradually grew weaker and weaker until it was necessary for her to take her bed which she seldom left.

There was never a more patient sufferer nor one more hopeful. Believing that she would be well before the flowers of Springtime came, she made many plans for the future and in each remembered her friends, never forgetting those whom she loved. Miss Carter was an exceedingly bright, pretty girl and very popular with all who had the pleasure of knowing her well. She was 26 years of age and had for a long time been a consistent member of the Christian church. Here was a beautiful Christian life and one well worthy of emulation. Her parents, brother and friends are almost heart-broken over their loss, but in their grief they have the consolation of knowing that their loss is her eternal gain.

The funeral will be preached at the home on Logan avenue at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning by her pastor, Rev. D. M. Walker, after which the burial will take place in Buffalo Springs cemetery.

G. G. Wine Dead.

G. G. Wine, well known in Stanford, where he lived many years died at Cloverport last week. Mr. Wine was in the monument business here and placed many of the handsome monuments that are in Buffalo cemetery. His wife is buried here, but we are informed that the body will be exhumed and placed by his side in the Cloverport city of the dead.

The funeral will be at the home of the deceased on Logan avenue at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning by her pastor, Rev. D. M. Walker, after which the burial will take place in Buffalo Springs cemetery.

Little Jimmy McCarley Dead

Little Jimmy McCarley, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McCarley, died at their home near Rowland and was buried in the Lancaster cemetery. The little fellow had been a sufferer from a hip trouble for five years, and bore his suffering uncomplainingly. He is survived by his parents and three brothers and sisters. The parents have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

C. F. Likens, of Jackson, has been here with Local Agent Dan Milburn, of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, for several days, looking over the local territory. He says that he is greatly pleased with the work that Mr. Milburn has been doing for his company in this part of the state.

Pleas Dye has been in bad shape with an affection resembling brain fever at the home of his father, John Dye in the Maywood section. The young man was severely hurt while living in Oklahoma a few months ago. He was struck on the head by a piece of machinery, while at work, and has been in a bad condition since. It is understood that his skull was fractured and that a piece of the bone is pressing upon the brain.

Granville E. Lutes, who recently left Lincoln for Florida, writes back that he is well pleased with the Sunshine State. He is located at Brandon and says that he found "everything nice and warm" and has been out in the yard in his shirt-sleeves. He says "most everybody is hauling in garden stuff. Things are awful high. Eggs are 37 cents a dozen; meal and flour are about a dollar and a half a bushel." Mr. Lutes says he hopes his friends back in Kentucky will write to him.

The Grant County News, the Lancaster Record and the Danville Advocate are about the only papers of any consequence in this part of the state that see anything to approve in Stanley's announcement for governor, which the I. J. ran in its advertising columns last week. All three were for him for the senatorial nomination. The Grant county paper has the distinction of carrying more whiskey advertising than any other country paper in Kentucky. The Advocate which for some time has been violently opposed to increase of taxation upon the railroads or big corporations, probably thinks Stanley is right when he attacked the State Board of Valuation and Assessment which gave the big corporations an immense boost in taxation last year. Joe Robinson's good paper supported Stanley very strongly for the senatorial nomination, and Beckham beat him in Garrard some 300 or 400 majority.

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If Tongue is Coated or if Cross, Feverish, Constipated Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passed out of bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their "sinsides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Joe P. Wilkinson Dead at Liberty.

Joe P. Wilkinson, aged 60, is dead at Liberty of heart trouble. He was ill only a few moments. For many years he had been a prominent merchant of his town and was for a long time a partner of Judge W. M. Myers, of Hustonville, in the general merchandise business at Liberty.

Mr. Wilkinson was a cousin of Ed Wilkinson, of Stanford, was an active democrat, high up in Masonry, and a splendid citizen. He is survived by his wife, but no children.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

Important to Everyone

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months especially, when we live an indoor life, the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed, as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than Nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, annoying bladder troubles, smarting or burning, brick-dust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

Many physicians claim that an herbal medicine containing no minerals or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compound that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the Stanford Interior Journal. 10-3.

KIDD'S STORE

The sudden death of genial Joe Wilkinson at Liberty last week was a great shock to his friends here. Casey has lost one of her most popular citizens, genial, generous and progressive. Exhilarated at breakfast, he had just entered the house after completion of his routine morning chores and asked his wife to adjust part of his attire before starting to his store. In midst of the performance, he asked her to catch him and when she had eased him to the floor, he was dead.

Jesse Riffe has been under the weather for a spell, which disturbed his neighbors but was out and about last Saturday apparently more robust than since hibernation began two months ago.

Mrs. W. D. Stagg's prolonged affliction is unimproved and it is feared is irremediable.

Many of our tobacco growers are in disheathed sympathy with their Lincoln brethren who got back from Danville with little more than teams, harness and "a bad taste in the mouth"—otherwise bitter experience. The charitable good judges of the "weed" are emphatic in charging up the disappointment to "poor quality."

Materials for a bridge over Green River near Dunnville are being wagoned from Moreland through here in quantities and dimensions which indicate a mammoth structure.

"Good Roads" is a term just now absolutely impossible of illustration anywhere in the State of Casey, officials say.

Big Court, Squire Ed Grubbs presiding, adjourned Friday after disposing of the biggest socket in history of the town. The crowd—litigants, witnesses, kin and friends, attorneys and idle curious—was so unprecedentedly big a nearby "meeting house" was commandeered because of inadequacy of our courthouse. Had Owsley Stanley only hurried here with that ten thousand dollar fee he got in Hoosierdom, he would have seen the folly of dabbling in peanut politics when the law affords such fat pickings.

Homer Lester of this place and Miss Allie Martin of Middleburg succeeded in stealing a march on all their friends and had been married a week before their neighborhood "got wise." The band-boys of the two creeks were so busy out of practice and their instruments so rusty from disuse that bass fiddles, dumb bells and rattletraps were all put out of commission at their last serenade, and supply of serviceable cow-bells and fox-horns being short their complimentary serenade of the newly-weds was not pulled off—first time in a generation.

James Floyd of West Lincoln was here on official business last week.

Dave Taylor passed through last Thursday stopping only long enough to cover blank places on bill boards, with advertisements of divers chatters to be offered to highest bidders because of certain delinquencies which annually disturb good sheriffs.

Foster Grubbs and mother have moved back to their old home.

Mrs. Howard Grubbs, of Turnerville spent a week with sister-in-law, Mrs. James Snow.

Leslie Frederick, a Casey boy who grew up in Suckerdome, has moved back home, bringing wife and three children. Les has bought the Gillock farm on Chile's Ridge and proposes showing us backwoods men a few fine points in up-to-date poultry raising.

Riley Edwards has moved on Mc-Keek's farm and is cordially with less than 10,000 pounds rejections for the entire week. Doesn't that signify that we are pleasing the people, with the best auctioneer in Kentucky? He "gets the price." Messrs. Bright & Hieatt demonstrate daily that they are the right men for the place they hold at the Danville Tobacco Warehouse. This is evidenced daily, not only in their successful sales, but in the selection of their auctioneer, and their entire force of men. They know how to arrange your tobacco to bring the best price, and Capt. R. E. Holland does the rest. You can't possibly make a mistake when you take your tobacco to the Walnut street house. Below are a few good averages made this week. On entire crop you can do as well, if you have the "goods."
